Fengjian Water Town is located in Shunde, Guangdong. It is also known as “Zhouzhuang of Guangdong” and is a place where many TVB dramas are filmed. Found here are the Stone Bridge of the Song Dynasty, the ancient temple of the Ming Dynasty, and the wooden archway of the Jinshi Square in the Qing Dynasty, all of which illustrate the flourishing and profound history of the past. Travelers can either go rafting on the river or take a walk on the stone roads on both sides.

An aerial view of the Zhuhai Opera House located on an island in Zhuhai City, South China's Guangdong Province, Sept. 4, 2019. Performance venues are housed within each of the architecturally-striking, shell-shaped forms, which at 90 and 60 metres tall are visible from afar. The first theatre in the Chinese mainland to be built on an island, the bigger concert hall has nearly 1,600 seats, while the smaller seats 500.
